BESCHREIBUNG

Villa designed to live outdoors, located in Cumbre del Sol. Distributed in several heights. The access to the house is on the top floor, with a large hall with private elevator that acts as the main organizer. On the middle floor there are three bedrooms with private bathroom and dressing room in one of them and access to the terrace. On the ground floor there is a large living room, dining room and kitchen, which are articulated in the same open space, except for the bathroom and the laundry. Communicated through an exterior staircase we find a fourth floor with ample space to house a gym, leisure area or extend the house with a fourth bedroom. An exquisite terrace further encourages the idea of "living the outdoors" with several rest areas next to the infinity pool and jacuzzi and a barbecue area with outdoor dining to enjoy the wonderful sunny days of the Costa Blanca.
